

Biography of Barbara Trieloff-Deane

Barbara Trieloff-Deane grew up in Christ Church, Barbados and attended Mrs. Scott's Primary School, Codrington High School and Queen's College before going on to McMaster University, Canada, where she earned a Double Honours in French and English, a Master of Arts and a PhD in English. Dr. Trieloff-Deane is also a Certified Financial Planner, Certified International Wealth Manager and Fellow of the Canadian Securities Institute.

Dr. Trieloff-Deane is Vice President, Learning & Development at Qtrade Financial Group. Previous roles include Director, CIBC Retail Markets Training & Development, General Manager-Imperial Service and Director-Commercial Banking at CIBC. She has been a conference speaker, on language and theatre, in France, U.K., and Canada. Within the financial services industry, she has presented at the Canadian Association of Financial Planners national conference and at the Financial Planners Standards Educator Conference.

An active volunteer, Dr. Trieloff-Deane served on the Board of Directors of Big Brothers and Big Sisters of York, was a mentor at Covenant House and a member of the United Way Speakers Bureau.

Dr. Trieloff-Deane is an avid rower with the Argonauts Rowing Club; a certified ski instructor and a member of the Osler Bluff Ski Club. She is also an equestrian and accomplished Squash player, having captained the Barbados Show Jumping Team and been a team member of the Varsity Squash Team at McMaster University.